NEWSLETTER Issue 22
Week ending Friday 28th February 2020

UNICEF article of the month: Article 12

Every child has the right to say what they think in all matters affecting them, and to have their views taken seriously.

Dear Parents and Carers,

It was good to see so many parents at the Consultation Evening last night. If your child was looked after by Shine Club, you will be charged; please pay Shine directly. The early closure was advertised in many newsletters emailed to parents and reminders sent by text message. Most parents have downloaded the mobile App for schools 'School Jotter' to ensure they receive the latest news and information.

World Book Week will run from Monday 2nd March to Friday 6th March; we have many exciting activities taking place, a visit from author Jennifer Bell and some exciting art work to reveal in the Learning Resource Centre.

Thursday 5th March is actually World book Day, our theme this year is Bedtime Stories, therefore all children and staff will be wearing their pyjamas for the day! We invite you all back to school at 5pm for a bedtime story with your child.

A representative from CAFOD presented a very informative assembly on Monday to the whole school; there was an excellent Q&A session, in which the younger children in the school demonstrated their understanding of the importance of Rainforests. More information to follow on how we will be supporting CAFOD with our Lent appeal. Father Andrew distributed ashes to all the children in a beautiful Reconciliation service. Many children in the infants have enjoyed the learn to ride initiative this week; our children are so lucky to enjoy the many cycling activities we have in school. I wish you all a lovely weekend.

God Bless

GOSPEL Matthew 4:1-11

Sunday is the First Sunday in Lent; we hear how Jesus spent 40 days in the desert. At the end of this time when he was tired and hungry, he was tempted with offers of bread, power and glory.

"If you are God's Son, order these stones to turn into bread."

Jesus replies: "The scripture says, 'Human beings cannot live on bread alone, but need every word that God speaks.'" If you are God's Son, throw yourself down, as the scripture says:

'God will give orders to his angels about you; they will hold you up with their hands, so that not even your feet will be hurt on the stones.'

Jesus answered, "But the scripture also says, 'Do not put the Lord your God to the test.'"

We can choose to give something up in Lent to remind ourselves of Jesus in the desert and the people around the world in need.

PRAYER FOR THE WEEK

God of love, you gave your son Jesus strength in the desert. May we also have the strength to do what is right and to stand up for what we believe in, even when we are tempted by others or by what we see around us to do wrong.
Amen.
